Brief Mention. High water to-day at 5:01 p. m. Buy a new house-R. E. Baldwin. Take twilight trip on Saltonstall.

Elihu Buckley and family have gone country home in North Branford for the summer.

M. A. Buttricks of the railway postal service, his son, Willis Buttricks, and Joseph Smith of Ward street are at Woodmont. On account of the death of Mrs. Dessauer the pupils' recital of the Dessauer-Troostwyk School of Music has been postponed until Wednesday, June Ezel lodge, No. 3, K. of P., will work the knight's degree on three prominent men of this city at their lodge room in the Odd Fellows' building on Crown street to-night. Moses Thomas, the tea merchant of Chapel street, and George Powning of Powning's advertising agency, are erecting new houses on Sherman avenue, ain, Bristol, Danbury and New Haven. the new George street school, had a narrow escape yesterday. As he was driving on George street his horse ran sway and Mr. Hogan only succeeded in stopping the animal by running it into a fence at the school. Mr. Hogan escaped uninjured.

The funeral services of James H. P. Chamberlain were held at his late residence on Orchard street yesterday afternoon and were attended by a large number of friends, including many prominent business men. There were a very large number of very choice and beautiful floral tributes. The Rev. Dr. McLane officiated.

Ex-Auditor Edward McCarthy and wife left on Saturday night for an extended tour through the north, which is taken for the benefit of Mrs. McCarthy's health, which has not been the best of late. They will visit Nova Scotla, Newfoundland, take a sail up the St. Lawrence to the Thousand Islands, returning home by way of the great lakes Cleveland, Buffalo, the Niagara Falls and other points of interest.

Battling Good Tennis.

Those who ventured out to the Lawr club yesterday afternoon after the shower were fully repaid for their efforts, witnessing one of the most spirited and hotly contested struggler at tennis that has been fought during the tournament. The fight was between Chase and Howland to see who should have the honor of playing against Champion Foote for the cup. The matter was so warmly contested that darkness overtook the players, and the finish had to be postponed until this afternoon at 4 o'clock, when play will be resumed where it left off last evening The game is best three in five sets, and now stands Chase two and How-land one, the score being 6-4, 3-6, 6-4 If the volleys, drives and smashes are as brilliant this afternoon as they wer yesterday the game will be well worth witnessing by all lovers of good tennis. The winner will play Foote on Wednes-

The Case of Express Messenger Lane of Waltingford.

Bridgeport, June 3 .- Express Messenger George A. Lane, who was so terribly injured Friday night by being struck by the projecting door of a freight car while he was looking out of the door of his car on another train while they were passing the Wheeler & Wilson factory, will probably die. At the hospital this morning it was said that it had been decided not to amputate Laue's right arm, as his co dition was so low that it was feared he would not survive the shock from the operation. Yesterday he sank stead ily, and while the physicians say he may live several days, they agree that he will never leave the institution

FRENCH-CANADIAN CONVENTION Inny Questions of Importance to Them to be Discussed Next July. A proclamation has been issued by the executive committee for the tenth annual convention of the French-Canadians of the state of Connecticut, which will take place in New Haven July 16 and 17. The convention will open at 9 o'clock in the morning with a solemn high mass at St. Louis church. The other meetings will be held in Germania hall, 281 Wooster street,

The proclamation states that "without wishing to impose a program of discussion on the convention, the followng questions are submitted, the gentlemen invited to take the first part in the debate being invited by personal

A Cromwell Marr age Cromwell, June 3 .- The marriage of Dr. E. R. Baldwin, one of the most popular and successful physicians ever located in Cromwell, to Miss Mary Ives of Cheshire on Saturday last was largely attended by people from this yielnity. About three years ago Dr. Baldwin gave up a good practice here on account of failing health and went nto northern New York, believing that the air of the Adirondacks would prove meficial to his weak lungs. His en agement to Miss Ives was broken at hat time as the doctor considered his covery very doubtful. His condition has, however, steadily improved and his marriage is the cause of sincere congratulation.
